NOTES

JEFF & GRANT LONGENBAUGH find all sorts of things in nature besides the photographs in this calendar: a reason to get up before dawn, awe, mosquito bites, peace, cold fingers, God, broken tripods, and an awesome excuse to hang out and eat a good lunch. Together, they've been taking photos for half of a century (though it's not split very evenly). Jeff is a veterinarian; Grant is a freelance photographer & designer.

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING ANNE'S KITS FOR KIDS!

Anne's Kits is a program designed to help young students grasp basic learning skills and parents understand how they can better support their child's academic growth.

ANNE'S KITS FOR KIDS is wholly self-supported PARENTS, TEACHERS, AND KIDS have given such through the generous donations of people like you and through hundreds of hours volunteered by teachers, parents, administrators, students, and community members. Since starting the program at Concord West Side School in 2007, Anne's Kits has evolved to provide learning strategies to parents and their children covering reading, language, math, memory, and motor skills. After attending several evening sessions with their parent(s), each child takes home their very own "kit" filled with books, educational games, learning exercises, physical fitness items, and a written promise from Mom or Dad to work together on a regular basis toward a great school experience!

positive feedback each year, that volunteers continue to commit to the program, and Anne's Kits for Kids has been adopted for use at Concord South Side, Concord Ox Bow and Concord East Side Schools. Many thanks to all who support Anne's Kits!

ANNE LONGENBAUGH was 22 and a newly-graduated teacher when she died in 2005. Anne's mother, Christine, along with her colleagues, first conceived of Anne's Kits as a way to address a need in their school and to honor her daughter's memory. Christine's coworkers, friends, and family have continued Anne's Kits after her death in 2006 following a long battle with cancer.

Helping our community's children is a fitting tribute to Chris & Anne, both of whom left our midst with the desire to serve & educate our community's youth still alive in their hearts.
